

Camp Community Arts

Rules of Conduct

Camp Community Arts is provided for the benefit education, and enjoyment of all participants. As such, it is the individual participant's responsibility to conduct oneself in such a way that it will encourage positive and constructive participation in the program by all. When this does not happen, the program has the responsibility to take the necessary steps to assure that a positive environment is available to all.

The "Rules of Conduct" are applicable to all participants in Camp Community Arts and shall be enforced within the entire school environment. When appropriate, problem-solving efforts will be made by individual teachers as well as the school administration; however, this directive gives the Camp Community Arts Administration the authority to suspend or permanently expel participants from any class or the entire program for any length of time, depending on the severity of the offense and for any of the following reasons:

- Obscene or vulgar language or gestures
- Disruptive behavior or uncooperative attitude in any class or aspect of the program
- Harassing or demeaning comments to any other participants, including staff
- Disrespectful acts towards staff, volunteers, or any other participants
- Any illegal activity including but not limited to theft, fraud, destruction of property
- Using or taking the property of others without permission
- Destruction or damage to another's property, including that of the school site
- Attending class in which the participant is not enrolled
- Failure to comply with class/program rules or directives

It is the goal of Camp Community Arts to provide a safe, fun, and positive learning environment for all students. Please sign and date below to show your understanding and agreement to the "Rules of Conduct" for Camp Community Arts.
